This program is arguably the most powerful mental re-programming system in use. Positive response is quick.

Balanced full-spectrum visual induction patterns, encoded with specific subliminal suggestions, here are 23 new programming, below the conscious threshold of perception, directly to the subconscious.

This program provides a relaxing, totally enjoyable experience.

While observing fascinating sculptures of moving light patterns, encoded messages within these patterns are instructing the subconscious, and the unwanted habit is slipping quietly away.

This program was awarded the BLAT Seal (The British Medical Association with the British Life Assurance Trust) in 1986 and has since been updated twice.
