Positivity DVD

£29.95

Why do some people succeed and others fail? When opportunity comes their way, some people will make 100% of the potential, others nothing. The difference is Positivity.

Positivity promotes healing and happiness, even in adversity. Positivity can make the unbearable bearable and the bearable beautiful.

Positivity is the natural state for people to enjoy. It is easily recognized in those who have it because it radiates. It's attractive and it's highly contagious. And those who have it enjoy increased happiness, success and satisfaction.

Using this program we learn how to control the kinds of feelings experienced, and how to generate feelings of well-being. We discover how to transmute negativity into success, achievement and zest.
